

Care in Pregnancy of Mothers and Babies with Congenital Heart Disease
Friday November 5th 2021 09:30-12:30hrs via Microsoft Teams

The Yorkshire and Humber Congenital Heart Disease Operational Delivery Network is facilitating a virtual education session which aims to support Obstetricians, Midwives, Obstetric Sonographers and Screening Coordinators with the management of pregnancies in which either the mother or the baby has congenital heart disease.

09:00-09:10hrs	Introduction	Dr Kate English, ACHD Cardiologist
09:10-09:30hrs	Risk stratification of women with congenital heart disease: Pregnancy Care Guideline for Women in Yorkshire & Humber Network with known Congenital Heart Disease	Dr Kate English, ACHD Cardiologist Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
09:30-09:50hrs	Local management of the low and moderate risk woman	Dr Matt Balerdi, ACHD Cardiologist Hull University Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
09:50-10:15am	Management of unexpected admission and delivery of high risk women	Dr James Oliver, ACHD Cardiologist Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
10:00-10:35am	Obstetric & Anaesthetic issues	Dr Sarah Winfield , Consultant Obstetrician Dr Tiff Halsey , Consultant Anaesthetist
10:35-40	Break
10:40-11am	National antenatal detection rates: the National Congenital Heart Disease Audit	Dr Shuba Barwick, Fetal Cardiologist Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
11am-11:20am	Yorkshire and Humber antenatal detection rates: local audit results	Dr Leila Rittey, Paediatric Cardiology Registrar
11:20-11:40am	Referral Criteria & information about the Fetal Cardiology service	Jan Forster, Specialist Sonographer & Marie Wray, Clinical Nurse Specialist Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
11:40-12:00pm	Place of delivery for neonates with congenital heart disease guideline	Dr Lawrence Miall Consultant Neonatologist Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
12:00-12:20pm	Management of the neonate with CHD in the first hour post the delivery	TBC
Finish	Evaluation

To register for this event, please email Natalie Machnik, Network Administrator
natalie.machnik@nhs.net